

GEORGIA FORESTRY FOUNDATION 2010 PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST

GFT readers! Dig out your best photographs now for the 2010 Georgia Forestry Foundation Photography Contest! The theme of this year's contest is Learning Through The Lens. We're looking for amazing images of Georgia's forests and the wildlife they support—photos that tell the story of the beauty and benefits of Georgia's woodlands. Your winning photographs could earn you prizes, and recognition—even a major grand prize!

READY ?

say treeeeees !!

Submissions will be based on originality, overall impact, presentation and difficulty.

Photos will be judged in the following categories:

- Habitat Natural scenes including, but not limited to trees, forest settings, rivers, etc.
- Wildlife All living creatures native to Georgia; no pets, domestic animals and animals in captivity
- Family Family members engaged in outdoor activity ~ please specify the family members' relationships: Uncle and Nephew, Grandmother and Granddaughter, etc.

Special Young Photographers' competition!

First and second place recognition will be given in the Young Photographers' category. Youth (18 and under Georgia residents) may submit photographs in any of the three categories above. Parents must sign a photo contest release form giving permission to publish the child's name.)

For submission details & rules, visit:

www.gfagrow.org

Let your passions for forestry and photography reward you!

First place entries in each category – Habitat, Wildlife & Family - will receive a $500 cash prize.

First place entry in the Young Photographer category will receive a $250 cash prize.

Runners-up in all four categories each will receive a $100 cash prize.

Fees: An entry fee of only $10.00 should accompany submissions in each category, but you can submit up to three photos in a single category.

Sponsors:

GEORGIA FORESTRY FOUNDATION